Touch That Fire

Vicci Martinez

Feels like it's gonna rain
The clouds are coming in
Such a beautiful pictureAnd I wanna fly away
But this time I'm gonna stay
And stop hiding from this illusion'Cause I've got a lot to say
And it's hard to find a way
To make anyone listenYou see I feel the need for change
But who am I to delegate
This has to be your decision'Cause I'd rather touch the fire than let my heart grow cold
And I'd never runaway from these things I wanna say
Lemme tell you babe, 'cause I want you to knowTouch that fire, yeah
Gimme that fire, yeah
Show me that fire, yeahAnd another day goes by
Oh how the time does fly
And now we're back where we startedBut I'm gonna see this through
And heal myself first so I can heal you
Singing songs and trying to make a differenceThat make you think about How your children gonna feel
Knowing all along we had the solution babyI'd rather touch the fire than let my heart grow cold
And I'd never runaway from these things I wanna say
Let me tell you baby, cause I want you to knowTouch that fire, yeah
Gimme that fire, yeah
Show me that fire, yeahWhat's it gonna take
To open up your eyes
We can't wait another day
For you to make up your mind
'Cause it's all about to break
So we got, got, gotta do something
Show me that fireNow I'm gonna see this through
And heal myself first so I can heal you
Singing songs and trying to make a differenceI'd rather touch the fire than let my heart grow cold
And I'd never runaway from these things I wanna say
Let me tell you baby, cause I want you to knowTouch that fire, yeah
Gimme that fire, yeah
Show me that fire, yeahAnd I'd never runaway from these things I wanna say
Let me tell you baby, cause I want you to know
Touch that fire
