Breathe (Kiko Navarro Classic Re-Edit)

Blaze

There is a place for everyone under the sun
There is a time for every life since time begun
There is a chance for every heart to find love
There is some hope for every thing you're dreaming ofAs the world keeps spinning 'round
Plant your feet on the ground
Lift your heart up to the sky
And greet new life
See the truth with your own eyes
Meditate to clear your mind
Lift your heart up to the sky
And greet new lifeThere is a day for every night, tomorrow will come
There is a mate for every song, to be together as one
There is a smile on every child, their eyes are glow
There is a mystery to life, someday we'll knowAs the world keeps spinning 'round
Plant your feet on the ground
Lift your heart up to the sky
And greet new life
See the truth with your own eyes
Meditate to clear your mind
Lift your heart up to the sky
And greet new life
