Salt Pillar (2009)

Tom Trimble

SALT PILLAR Tom Trimble

1.

The Angel said to hurry, the Lord will judge our city. Thereâ€™s safety in the mountains. So letâ€™s head for higher ground.

Darlinâ€™ letâ€™s run hand-in-hand, we cannot look behind us.

Then all at once it happened and I knew she had turned around.

Chorus:

Seemed I heard her saying run on, (run on) Thereâ€™s nothing left behind you.

I almost heard her whisper Be Strong, (Be Strong). Donâ€™t ever slow down (Donâ€™t ever slow down) Its ringing in my ears, her silent testimony.

Whoa, Salt Pillar Iâ€™ll never turn around.

2.

Down through the years since I started walking, some friends have come and gone. I donâ€™t know why some changed their minds. But in my memory, I see the monuments to failure. And I know if I would listen, I could hear them testifying.

Chorus:

I can hear them saying run on, (run on) Thereâ€™s nothing left behind you. Those old friends was shouting Be Strong, (Be Strong) Donâ€™t ever slow down (Donâ€™t ever slow down) Its ringing in my ears, oh their silent testimony.

Whoa Salt Pillar Iâ€™ll never turn around.

3.

As I look ahead, I can see a host of people. Thereâ€™s a great cloud of witnesses and theyâ€™ve already won the race While Iâ€™m down here running slow. I can hear their songs of victory and I know that I can make it as I began to pick up the pace.

Chorus:

I can hear them singing run on, (run on) Thereâ€™s nothing left behind you. All the saintâ€™s are shouting Be Strong (Be Strong) Donâ€™t ever slow down (Donâ€™t ever slow down) Itâ€™s ringing in my ears, (I hear it ringing in my Oh their silent testimony. Whoa. Salt Pillar Iâ€™ll never turn around. (Iâ€™ll never turn around)

Whoa. Salt Pillar Iâ€™m still heaven bound. Going to see his face.

Lyrics Submitted by Patricia Turner

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/