Jailbait

The Time Flys

Teenage baby you're a sweet young thing
Still tied to mommas apron strings
I don't even dare to ask your age
It's enough to know you're here back stageYou're jailbait
And I just can't wait
Jailbait, baby come onOne taste baby all I need
My decision made at lightning speed
I don't even want to know your name
It's enough to know you feel the sameJailbait
And I just can't wait
Jailbait baby, get down
HeyLove that young stuffTell you baby you know you look so fine
Send quivers up and down my spine
I don't care about our different ages
I'm an open book with well-thumbed pagesJailbait
And I ain't too late
Jailbait baby, get down
