To Hell With You

Sleigh Bells

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Sit, just stop fucking around
Throwing shade on the ground
I stick around to tone it down
Hey, shut lipsThese days they might age you
With no one to age you
These days they might age you
With no one to see youYou don't live, don't lie
Just be ok
Hey, don't take it out on me
If you can't see
You know that it's the truth
Only you, don't take it back on me
The way I see
I?ll go to hell with you
Here's the proofTrue, it was a test
Why did you lie? I thought I?d die
Highest highs and lowest lows
Everybody knows
Love, it costs
There's always someone somewhere who cares, hey there
There's always someone somewhere who cares, hey there
There's always someone somewhere who cares, hey there
There's always someone somewhere who cares, hey thereDon't live, don't lie
Just be ok
Hey, don't take it out on me
If you can't see
You know that it's the truth
Only you, don't take it back on me
The way I see
I?ll go to hell with you
Here's the proof(x2)
Yes, yes, yes

The sound of this is good so
Yes, yes, yes
You know I'm good at this loveThese days they might age you
With no one to age you
These days they might age you
With no one to see youDon't live, don't lie
Just be ok
Hey, don't take it out on me
If you can't see
You know that it's the truth
Only you, don't take it back on me
The way I see
I?ll go to hell with you
Here's the?
