Save Yourself

Suzy Bogguss

You're gonna have to save yourself this time darlin'
You're gonna have to find a soft heart in someone else
'Cause I almost drowned comin' to your rescue
This time around, you're gonna have to save yourselfI'm all out of rope and I'm all out of reasons
You had me thinkin' I could help that you needed a friend
One little white lie and it all looks deceiving
You keep goin' back out over your head againBut you're gonna have to save yourself this time darlin'
You're gonna have to find a soft heart in someone else
'Cause I'm not gonna drown comin' to your rescue
This time around, you're gonna have to save yourselfYou can knock on the door, you can rattle all the windows
You can howl like a dog but you're not comin' in I'm anybody's fool 'til I learn how the game goes
And I will never be you're fool again'Cause you're gonna have to save yourself this time darlin'
You're gonna have to find a soft heart in someone else
No, I'm not gonna drown comin' to your rescue
This time around, you're gonna have to save yourself
This time, you're gonna have to save yourself
