Bury Me

Childsaint

Kissing like ghosts with lips as cold as stone
Waxing lyrical but I'll find the words when I get home
Bury me where you find me, don't be kind
I'll be lonely but I'll be fine

Screaming cuts the night as the cats tear each other apart
It's like they're serenading a never ending dark
Bury me where you find me, don't be kind
I'll be lonely but I'll be fine

Come with me darling I will be your friend
We'll be lonely just as we were back then
And they can bury us wherever the hell they fucking like
When we're dead we'll be forgiven our life
