

Good God (Marc Em Remix)

Korn

You came into my life
Without a single thing
I gave into your ways
Which left me with nothing
I've given empty smiles
I've dealt with all your games
I wish you'd bet right now
I had to let you win
Won't you get the fuck out of my face, now!
Won't you get the fuck out of my face, now!
In the sea of life you're just a minnow
Live your life insecure
Feel the pain of your needles
As they shit into my mind
I scream without a sound
How could you take away
Everything that I was
Made me a fuckin' slave
Your face that I despise
Your heart inside that's gray
I came today to say
You're fucked in every way
Won't you get the fuck out of my face, now!
Won't you get the fuck out of my face, now!
In the sea of life you're just a minnow
Live your life insecure
Feel the pain of your needles
As they shit into my mind
You stole my life
Without a sigh
You sucked me dry
Won't you get the fuck out of my face, now!
