Exceptional

Unisonic

You're beautiful but you don't know
Can't see what's there inside your soul
Always feelin' like you're not good enough
You wish you could be someone else
Sometimes you just can't see yourself
But I can see just who you are, who you areYou're exceptional the way you are
Don't need to change for nobody
You're incredible, anyone can see that
When will you believe that
You are nothing but exceptional?You never think you measure up
Never smart or cool or pretty enough
Always feelin' different from all the rest
You feel so out of place, you think you don't fit in
I think you're perfect in the skin you're in You're just perfect just how you are, just how you areYou're exceptional the way you are
Don't need to change for nobody
You're incredible, anyone can see that
When will you believe that
You are nothing but exceptional?If you could see the one I see
When I see you, you'd know
How lucky you are to be you
I see through into you
And you areYou're exceptional the way you are
Don't need to change for nobody
You're incredible, anyone can see that
When will you believe that? You areYou're exceptional the way you are
Don't need to change for nobody
You're incredible, anyone can see that
When will you believe that
You are nothing but exceptional?
