She got off the bus
She didn't get farNow she can act as good as Meryl Streep
Dreams of stardom when she sleeps
The casting couch makes her scream
Wasn't like this in her dreamsWishful thinking
Give it to me, give it to me, give it to me, give it to me good
Wishful thinking

Takes little white pills to stay awake
No record deals just make him scream
It wasn't like this in his dreamWishful thinking

Wishful thinking
