

Deadman Walking

UFO

The enemy is at the door
The enemy within.
Dressed up in the strangest clothes,
Smells of drinking Bombay gin. There's a deadman walking
And his shadow's growing long.
There's a deadman walking Taking it in before his time is gone. My father was a Russian Jew
My Irish mother crazy.
I see summer, winter, fall.
When grown men
cry like babies. There's a deadman walking
And his shadow's growing long.
There's a deadman walking
Taking it in before his time is gone. Solo Wish I never had to leave.
Wish I'd never known.
Wish I could stay here forever.
Watch my garden grow. There's a deadman walking
And his shadow's growing long.
There's a deadman walking
Taking it in before his time is gone. There's a deadman talking
And his shadow's growing long.
There's a deadman talking Taking it in before his time is gone. There's a deadman walking deadman walking deadman talking
