

Scared Enough

Samara Yung

Iâ€™m over driven to fast
Never worried about crashinâ€™
When I want something Iâ€™m confident that itâ€™s going to happen
A little catch your feelings doesnâ€™t bother me
I never let them get that close to me
Canâ€™t have a fear of a Broken heart
When your living like that

But Iâ€™m just scared enough
To be thinking about that this one might count
And I donâ€™t want to mess it up
Canâ€™t believe that Iâ€™m saying this right now
I never want to think that something matter that much
But Iâ€™m thinking it might be love
Cause Iâ€™m just scared enough, scared enough

He took all my self control and let it run free
Twist and beautiful insecurities
I donâ€™t know what to do
Donâ€™t know what to say
I donâ€™t know how to handle it if it breaks
A part of me feels like, baby itâ€™s a good thing
A good thing

Iâ€™m just scared enough
To be thinking about that this one might count
And I donâ€™t want to mess it up
Canâ€™t believe that Iâ€™m saying this right now
I never want to think that something matter that much
But Iâ€™m thinking it might be love
Cause Iâ€™m just scared enough, scared enough

I never wanted to think something matter that much
But Iâ€™m thinking it might be love

Iâ€™m just scared enough
To be thinking about that this one might count
And I donâ€™t want to mess it up
Canâ€™t believe that Iâ€™m saying this right now
I never want to think that something matter that much

But Iâ€™m thinking it might be love
Cause Iâ€™m just scared enough, scared enough
