Call Someone

Thirteen Senses

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Call someone, tell them how you feel
Call someone and tell them what you think is wrong
Beat the ground, show it how you feel
Show it all the ways that you've been taught to feelAnd the bigger you are, the harder you fall
You just need to call and let someone know
And the faster you think
Is the time that you'll need, just to say, helloWaste some time, trying not to breath
Trying to be heard in all of everything
Change of hearts, change it how you feel
Call someone and let them know how good you feelAnd the bigger you are, the harder you fall
You just need to call and let, let someone know
And the faster you think
Is the time that you'll need, just to say, helloAnd nothing ever happens and nothing ever fits
But you're keeping up with it
Gonna take one more connection
A one that you fit and make use of itAnd the bigger you are, the harder you fall
You just need to call and let, let someone know
And the faster you think
About doing it, is the time that you'll need
