Sweet Prince

David Jordan

In his world of innocence
Leaving love in his foot prints
He can feel the love in his father's arms
Feel the loving care that his daddy shares in his arms
Oh he's still young and far to go
Baby boy there's so much he has to know
Living in his world of innocence
Leaving love behind in his footprints
You're my sweet prince
Lay your head down to sleep
My dear sweet prince close your eyes
You're my sweet prince
Lay your head down don't weep
Sweet prince it will all be fine
Oceans of the deep blue sea
Through your eyes I see the reflection of me
I can feel your heart, beat with mine
Always be here by my side, and you'll be fine
You're my sweet prince
Lay your head down to sleep
My dear sweet prince close your eyes
You're my sweet prince
Lay your head down don't weep
Sweet prince it will all be fine
