

Fuck My Enemies (feat. Kevin Abstract)

Allan Kingdom

Yo

Fuck everybody who doubted

Fuck everybody I tried to be friends with

Fuck all of you

I love you

Thank you Should've known, it's fuck my enemies

Should've known not to trust your energy

Should've known, it's fuck the industry

Should've known, should've known, you gon' remember me

Should've known, it's fuck my enemies

Should've known not to trust your energy

Should've known, it's fuck the industry

Should've known, should've known, you gon' remember me

Yeah I tried to show some love to my enemy

But I should've stay home like I'd rather be

Jealousy got you tryna get ahead of me

Niggas kissing all that ass, Human Centipede

When my numbers on low, you forgetting me

When I blow, you gon' blow me like a canopy

Got a little more dough now you hella geeked

Yeah all these lil hoes got you hella geeked Should've known, it's fuck my enemies

Should've known, should've known, since elementary

Should've known you not ahead of me

Could've known, so how could I let you get to me?

Should've known, should've known some fucking memories

Don't regret your energy was never meant for me

Should've known that you were less than me

You offended me but you could never threaten me

Should've known, it's fuck my enemies

Should've known not to trust your energy

Should've known, it's fuck the industry

Should've known, should've known, you gon' remember me

Should've known, it's fuck my enemies

Should've known not to trust your energy

Should've known, it's fuck the industry

Should've known, should've known, you gon' remember me My big homie spending money like it's 1996

I just got some custom golds and my teeth still ain't fixed

Fuck niggas who want everything I got though

Bitch, do it look like I just won the lotto?

Cam'ron still my idol, nigga
Pink is like the bible, nigga
High within the righteous scriptures 'cause these boys got it out for me
My head is dangling off this fucking balcony
I hope my enemy
Will at least pick a nice weapon
And let me look at it before you 'cide to dissect me
I retire from the mic so you can direct me
I been trying to be in Fader since I was like 15
Sixth grade, Soulja Boy told me I could be anything
So any nigga that tell me different wasn't fucking listening
We cut from different cloths though
You motherfuckers lost out
I want a drug, a partner and a home in Palo Alto
It's gon' take a sec for y'all niggas to learn to work though
Should've known, it's fuck my enemies
Should've known not to trust your energy
Should've known, it's fuck the industry
Should've known, should've known, you gon' remember me
Should've known, it's fuck my enemies
Should've known not to trust your energy
Should've known, it's fuck the industry
Should've known, should've known, you gon' remember me
I sat on this side and I think about it by myself now
Talking 'bout
It's hard to fuck with you
Fuck niggas, fuck niggas
It's hard to fuck with you
