SKATERS

I never look good cause it's so hard to do
This salutation is made just for you
I know
It won't change your mind I tell you something
Cause you ask for the truth
Said I'm sick of this part
Well, I'm sick of it too
I know we've done this before But I guess I'll never change your mind
No, I guess I'll never change your mind
But I'll try When you catch me walking down your street
Falling over my aimless sleep
You know
I'm creepin' round your door
And if I'm running outta words
Speaking out of turn
I turn back to the top
Can't cut it out
I thought that you know
You know the reason why
