

Madison's Favorite Toys

Fly Away Hero

Little boys in chains, a red masquerade that she wears around her lips to make her pretty
Purple on her eyes, stockings to the sky, then she sheds every shred of regret to hit the city
Just ignore the markings on her thighs, itâ€™s all for the attention
When all she does is wine and dine, well she forgot to, she forgot to mention

We are all Madisonâ€™s favorite toys
She plays with all of us girls and boys
In a little world she calls her own

Teenage girl in bloom, Taylor Swift perfume that makes you smell like wonderlust and whiskey
How your eyes, they gleam shattered self esteem, that you broke when you choked on the blokes who filmed for Mickey

Sheâ€™ll tell you sheâ€™ll be faithful as she sleep with just a friend
Sheâ€™ll tell you that sheâ€™s grateful in his bed, as she bends

We are all Madisonâ€™s favorite toys
She plays with all of us girls and boys
In a little world she calls her own

Play with me, Madi please donâ€™t forget
Play with me, Iâ€™m not broken yet
Play with me, Madi please donâ€™t forget
Play with me, Iâ€™m not broken yet
Play with me, Madi please donâ€™t forget
Play with me, Iâ€™m not broken yet
Play with me, Madi please donâ€™t forget
Play with me, Iâ€™m not broken yet

We are all Madisonâ€™s favorite toys
She plays with all of us girls and boys
In a little world she calls her own
We are all Madisonâ€™s favorite toys
Little plastic soldiers that she enjoys
We make her feel less alone

Looks like sheâ€™s caught another one

Ashes to ashes, we all fall down
