

Everything In 2's

Better Than Ezra

Cut me out of this role
I can't play it anymore
It must be somethin' in the water here
Yeah yee Give me up, I confess
I feel as though I'm livin' less
The strangest gravity affects my way
Because I was born incomplete
Drowning in the brevity
Kind of like a road you're travellin' on Everything in two's
You often lose
You make me whole again
Everything in two's
You never knew
You'd make me whole again Someone said, someone wrote
Floatin' tethered to a rope
So complicate me
I could use the weight
In how you move the scenery
Lover, how you mirror me
But stop me if you've heard it all before
'Fore Everything in two's
You often lose
You make me whole again
Everything in two's
You never knew
You'd make me whole again Now and again
You find yourself over your head
A cynical time, in you, find reason to live Everything in two's
You often lose
You make me whole again
Everything in two's
You never knew
You'd make me whole again Cut me out of this role
I can't play it anymore
It must be somethin' in the water here
Yeah yea
