Dearly Departed

Arid

Fingers numb, feel sick again
I call on you, you my friend
Youve stung my heart with your goodbyes
The lemon sweet of your liesLet the dirt cover me
Kiss the sky as you fly on high
Over all thats left to be
Ill see you when I fallIm so tired, put me to sleep
I dig a hole, I dig down deep
I see faces in the black
Grabbing hands pulling me backI am lost within myself
No I cant be someone else
So many things still left to say
I'll see you when I fallFace the phantoms in my sleep
They say time heals, will it for me?
With every cut youre in too deep
As sorrow plants another seedI let the dirt cover me
Kiss the sky as you fly on high
Over all thats left to be
Ill see you when I fallIm so tired, put me to sleep
I dig a hole, I dig down deep
I see faces in the black
Grabbing hands pulling me backI am lost within myself
No I cant be someone else
And it makes me wonder why
All good things they come to dieBehold the sadness in my eyes
Ill forget and live my life
Though youll burn inside of me
Ill see you when I fall
