With You (feat. Drake)

Lil Wayne & Drake

Uh, shawty badder than a 3 year old
Keep playing and I'mma eat her like a pita roll
I'm just sayin' with my love I could feed her soul
Two day getaway and we don't need our clothes
We at the pool and she lookin' like a center fold
Two tattoos but she say she gettin' plenty mo
She got Indian in her family, Seminole
Me and shawty go together like chemicals
And she get mad when I call other woman hoes
You send a rose, I pick some flowers and send her those Tall glass of Merlot get her in the mode
Two tall glasses of Merlot get her out her robe
I whisper in her ear, then lick around her lobe
And when she check her watch, it's never time to go
And with her brain she should make the honor roll
And when I came, she caught me like the common cold
Da-damn you the shit
And I'll rip my heart out and hand you the shit
And I don't really know how to handle this shit
But tonight, it's moonlight and candles and shitWith you baby
With you baby
With you baby
With you baby
With youuuu and only youUh, I say damn I must be left cause you the best I ever seen right
Shawty put me on, you got me gone like some green lights
See you with your girls, they probably telling you that he ain't right
Bet they be the same bitches at the wedding throwing rice
Lets get together over night
Shawty I'm a pro and you are lookin' like the prototype, haha
But Cita I took your advice
Sometimes you got to blow it twice then shake it up and roll the dice
I'm crusin' on the road of life but I need a passenger
Appetite for lovin', ma I'm hungry like a scavenger
I-I be on that lavender
I-I be in the bath with her
Then I gotta go under that water like a mariner
Da-damn you the shit
And I'll rip my heart out and hand you the shit
And I don't really know how to handle this shit

But tonight, it's moonlight and candles and shitWith you baby
With you baby
With you baby
With you baby
With youuuu and only youUh, now she don't know about me
But I'mma put her on it
And she ain't sure about me
But can't go without me, haha
We probably ain't supposed to be together
But I wonder if our love affair could last forever, haha
And shawty I'm with ya
Smoke a lot of weed but I could never forget ya
Then I told her to her face
If everyone was like you the world would be a better placeDa-damn you the shit
And I'll rip my heart out and hand you the shit
And I don't really know how to handle this shit
But tonight, it's moonlight and candles and shitWith you baby
With you baby
With you baby
With you baby
With youuuu and only youDa-damn you the shit
I'll rip my heart out and hand you the shit
And I don't really know how to handle this shit
But tonight...With you baby
With you baby
With you baby
With you baby
With youuuu and only you
