

Windows Are Rolled Down

Amos Lee

Look up, child
The world is born
Shoe's untied
And your soles are worn Windows are rolled down
Sun is setting high
Windows are rolled down
I'm fixing to die Corn rows have companion feel
This rocky road and this steering wheel
Who do you call to ease your pain?
I hope for you to get through this rain Windows are rolled down
Moon is hanging low
Windows are rolled down
Think it's time for me to go, hey Is it what you dreamed it'd be?
Are you locked up in this fantasy?
Oh, this miles that have torn us apart
My new found faith and my broken heart Windows are rolled down
Sun is rising high
Windows are rolled down
Feel that wind rushing by, hey Windows are rolled down
