

Running (feat. Nas)

Melanie Fiona

Shouldn't have to cry for you to make me smile
Hey, talking down to me, like i'm your child, ohhh
Shouldn't have to beg ya, ohhh to hear me out, nooo
Shouldn't need another reason, for me to shut you out?

But my heart and my mind are in battleChorus:

Loving you is like running, running on the line
It's like I'm chasing down the love, and there's no finish line in sight
I just keep on running, running on the line
and you wonder why I'm so damn tired all the time!

I keep on running,

Feels like I'm running, running on the line

I keep on running,

And you wonder why I'm so damn tired all the time. What's a little laughter, oh, when it comes with so much pain?

Oh, I'll be here forever, if I wait for you to change, oh.

Oh, oh, I don't know if I can do it, cause I'm running low on fluid.

Can't believe you brought me to this and rip my heart and straight abuse it

What's it gonna take for me to break away?

I really don't know, hey!

Cause my heart and my mind are in battleChorus:

Loving you is like running, running on the line
It's like I'm chasing down the love and there's no finish line in sight
I just keep on running, running on the line
And you wonder why I'm so damn tired all the time!

I keep on running,

Feels like I'm running, running on the line

I keep on running,

And you wonder why I'm so damn tired all the time. Yeah, yeah, we got that color purple love

Running and waving

Saying nothing can keep us from it

That's my woman, but you might fall in love with the youngster

Hipster, someone taller, baller, richer, and locked down

Maybe someone of a different ethnic background, terrific

I wish you the white gown, the garter, white veil, rings and roses

Tiara in your hair like a queen, I toast ya.

told you, lately I'm bingin' on Mercedes Benzes

Lot of my lady friend is getting older

Looking for somebody to cuff them

Rush them to a husband, don't even truly love them.

At their best friend's bridal ceremony, jealous and they lonely, cryin, but they phony
Yo, Fiona, you know me
Yo, We still got time to find real L O V E
Like them lyrics in the real love songs, da oldies, so keep runnin for me
If you're out there listening, Sir Nas don't need a trophy, I need a misses Trying to get with that wife and kids business not just arm candy, my dream is to have a family. All I ever wanted was a love on top.
All I ever needed was a love that's mine
Did you ever really love me or is love so blind uh, here I go I'm bout to cross the line Chorus:
running, running on the line, heyyy
It's like I'm chasing down the love and there's no finish line in sight
I just keep on running, running on the line
and you wonder why I'm so damn tired all the time!
I keep on running,
Feels like I'm running, running on the line
I can't keep running,
And you wonder why I'm so damn tired all the time, ohhhh
