

The Time Has Come

Weeping Willows

Sit down beside
I've been cast out of paradise
I don't need advice
Just someone who listens to me tonight
All I possess is my body and mind
The time has come
time to make a choice
A time for change
A time to use my voice
Sit down beside
I've been cast out of paradise
I just need a smile from someone who's steady when stakes are high I'm just a body with a soul inside
The time has come
time to make a choice
The time has come
time to use my voice
The time has come
A time to take a stand
The time has come
for me to be a man
The time has come
time to show my strength
The time has come
and less to make a change
Oo-oo-oo
End
