Prince of Darkness

Alice Cooper

An angel fell one stormy night
From Heaven's Glory
He split the earth to reign in Hell, woahHe fears the light, He fears the truth
He fears what's going to be
He spits on life, He spits on God
He spits up death for you and mePrince of Darkness, studies the world with hungry eyes
Prince of Darkness, ready to baptize you in lies
Heart of evil, soul of blackness
Prince of DarknessHe saw that man was just a boy
With a baby's mind
He swore damnation of God's creation, woahHe lives for hate, He lives for tears
He lives up to his name
He knew the light, He knew the one
Who was crucified in painPrince of Darkness, studies the world with hungry eyes
Prince of Darkness, ready to baptize you in lies
Heart of evil, soul of blackness
Prince of DarknessHe fears the light, He fears the truth
He fears what's going to be
He spits on life, He spits on God
He spits up death for you and mePrince of Darkness, studies the world with hungry eyes
Prince of Darkness, ready to baptize you in lies
Prince of Darkness, studies the world with hungry eyes
Prince of Darkness, ready to baptize you in lies
Prince of DarknessHe smells the breath of sweet human sin
And deeply breathes it in
Prince of Darkness
