Half A Woman, Half A Shadow

Roxette

Wash my pain away
Half a woman, half a shadow
Daylight is breaking again
I hide in the dark, I'm watching the rain
You're out of touch and you're out of reach
What can I say, I never wanted it this way
Love sleeps all alone
The cold telephone, I know the heart
Yes, I know the kind, the kisses of fire
Turning to gray, I never wanted it this way
I always wanted you to say
'Cause I'm half a woman, half a shadow
Wash my pain away
'Cause I'm half a woman, half a shadow
Ohh, love always change with the trees
The spring and the leaves, the waves on a sea
Wilder than light the wind in your eyes
Led me astray, I never wanted it this way
I always wanted you to say
Wash my pain away
Yes, I'm half a woman, half a shadow
Wash my pain away
'Cause I'm half a woman, half a shadow
Wash my pain away
Oh I need you, yes I need you
Oh give me a reason to believe
Wash my pain, wash it away
Half a woman, half a shadow
Wash my pain away
'Cause I'm half a woman, half a shadow
Wash my pain away
'Cause I'm half a woman, half a shadow
Wash my pain away
'Cause I'm half a woman, half a shadow
