You Are the Lord

Doug & Deb

You are the Lord, that is Your name,
You will never share Your glory with anyone.
You will never share Your glory with anybody,
Almighty God, that is Your name.

You are the Lord, that is Your name,
You will never share Your glory with anyone.
You will never share Your glory with anybody,

Almighty God, that is Your name.
You are the Lord, that is Your name,
You will never share Your glory with anyone.
You will never share Your glory with anybody,
Almighty God, that is Your name.

You are the Lord, let Your name be glorified.
You are the Lord, let Your name be glorified.

Let Your name, let Your name, let Your name be glorified!
No other god is like our God, let Your name be glorified!
Let Your name, let Your name, let Your name be glorified! No other god is like our God, let Your name be glorified!
Let Your name, let Your name, let Your name be glorified!

You are the Lord, that is Your name,
You will never share Your glory with anyone.
You will never share Your glory with anybody,
Almighty God, that is Your name.

You are the Lord, that is Your name,
You will never share Your glory with anyone.
You will never share Your glory with anybody,
Almighty God, that is Your name.

You are the Lord, let Your name be glorified.
You are the Lord, let Your name be glorified.
