

What You Want

Tenth Avenue North

Everyday I've been feeling the pressure
I always gotta know the plan
It's a wait that I've tried to shoulder
I thought I could, but I can't
And I'm so tired of chasing dreams
When I am wired to let you lead You're changing my heart
To want what You want
To love what You love
And that is enough
There's no greater plan that I need to know
You only ask me to follow And want what You want, You want
[x4] Oh I'm feelin' this surrender
I feel myself come alive
And the burden feels like a feather
When I let my agenda die
And I get so tired of my own dreams
But I am wired to let you lead You're changing my heart
To want what You want
To love what You love
And that is enough
There's no greater plan that I need to know
You only ask me to follow And want what You want, You want
[x4] So many leaders, You ask for followers
So keep on leading, cuz You're my Father
[x2] You're changing my heart
And want what You want
To love what You love
If that is enough
There's no greater plan that I need to know
You only ask me to follow And want what You want, You want
[x4] So many leaders (what you want), you ask for followers (what You want)
So keep on leading (what you want), cuz You're my Father (what You want) [x2]

Songwriters

JEFF OWEN, MIKE DONEHEYPublished by

Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>