Waiting for a Sign

Philip Selway

Oh, you're wasting precious time.
Oh, you're wasting precious time.
And someday you'll wake up and find.
There's nobody around, they've got their own lives.Are you waiting for a sign?
Are you waiting for the sign?
The final piece falls into place.
There's nobody around, they've gone their own way.
There's nobody around, they've gone their own way.Are you waiting for a sign?
Are you waiting for the sign?
The final piece falls into place.
There's nobody around, they've gone their own way.
There's nobody around, they've gone their own way.
There's nobody around, they've gone their own way.
