Ann Don't Cry

Pavement

The damage has been done, i am not having fun anymore.
Do what you do when you try what you get when you see the light, come down i'll set my hope in a wonderful hospital man.We got rooms to live room to live in room to give but no room to give in, but you never had a chance no you never had a chance.
To those above take us out throw us down shove us out.
We get down so so hard.
But your vulgar display caught me off gaurd; Cold cold boy with american heart gonna run in and lock up the shots againBut ann don't you cry, don't you cry ann, don't you cry. Don't you cry ann, don't you cry, don't you cry ann, don't you cry.Well my (he)art is not a wide open thing, i know, there is hardly not a lot to say, except i met her and her 5 false friends.
They go, they go tied, tied, tied to the tracks just remember the facts Repeat until you're running aground again.
