

Out of the ashes

V-Sag feat. Alexandra McKay

Music: Romeo-Pinnella-Miller

Lyrics: Allen

In the house of my master
Beyond the chains there is a bed of snakes where evil lays

Oh, I hear laughter

I forged the iron bars that someday will imprison me

Ooh, mother will you help me

Mother will you help me

To find a reason to go on

CHORUS

Out of the ashes of my youth

I rise a man

And through the eyes of truth

I finally understand

The way

I've been beaten with his words and whipped with his lies

He will not break me down no matter how hard he tries

Pray for my lost soul

Out of control the storm inside me rages on and on and on

Mother will you help me

Mother will you help me

To find a reason to go on

CHORUS

Out of the ashes of my youth

I rise a man

And through the eyes of truth

I finally understand

The way

SOLO

Out of the ashes of my youth

I rise a man

And through the eyes of truth

I finally understand

CHORUS

Out of the ashes of my youth

I rise a man

And through the eyes of truth

I finally understand

The way
