I Need a Change

The Shouting Matches

I need a change
Girl, I need a change from you
What we had was new
But now I need a change
We were up so high where the steeple chimes
But now I need a change from youWell you need a change
Girl, you need a change too
'Cause you went out of you
And now, now need a change too
We were set it stone even built our home
And now I need a change from youLet a calm rise over your mind
Close the door
Well you treat me kind
And you need my mind
But I still need a change from you
And I don't know the reasons why
And I'm so damn sick and tired
So I'll say it one last time
