The Creak In the Floorboards

Tired Pony

The phone rings out to no one
Because we've finally left the house
Throw our whole lives in the old car
And eat the highway piece by pieceHere I am I'm a right mess
Here you are in the right dress
Here we are it's the last dance
Here we are in the distanceWe take the same road that we always take
But this time we're not coming back
There's a thousand miles ahead of us
And a million in our wakeHere I am, I'm a right mess
Here you are in the right dress
Here we are, it's the last dance
Here we are in the distanceDo you know what I'm looking for now [x4]
'Cause I sure don'tWith our whole lives boxed around us
We leave the lions to themselves
And we hardly need reminding
That you're the raven I'm the wolfHere I am I'm a right mess
Here you are in the right dress
Here we are it's the last dance
Here we are in the distanceDo you know what I'm looking for now [x8]
'Cause I sure don'tWherever you are be wherever you are with me tonight [x4]
