Weakness

Maria

Please stop pretending we're not the same
That you don't feel no pain when I know
And don't try to turn away
Cover up when you're afraid
Don't be afraid, 'cause I knowSometimes it's hard to tell that it's okay
Yes, it's okay, baby with meYou can cry, baby, it's alright
Let them fall and I'll dry your eyes
Don't you feel no shame
'Cause I love your weaknessYou can cry, baby, it's alright
When you hurt, you don't have to hide
Just let down your guard
'Cause I love your weakness
Baby, your weakness, I love your weaknessSo feel safe and know you can speak your mind
Put all your pride aside 'cause I know
When things get too hard to take
Just give into my embrace
And I'll keep you safe 'cause I knowSometimes it's hard to tell that it's okay
Yes, it's okay, baby with meYou can cry, baby, it's alright
Let them fall and I'll dry your eyes
Don't you feel no shame
'Cause I love your weaknessYou can cry, baby, it's alright
When you hurt, you don't have to hide
Just let down your guard
'Cause I love your weaknessDid the world disappoint you, babe?
If you're caught, took your innocence away
Let me compensate
I'll be there if it falls apart
Let me in if you open up your heart
Just let me in 'cause baby, I know, I knowYou can cry, baby, it's alright
Let them fall and I'll dry your eyes
Don't you feel no shame
'Cause I love your weaknessYou can cry, baby, it's alright
When you hurt, you don't have to hide
Just let down your guard
'Cause I love your weaknessYou can cry, baby, it's alright
Let them fall and I'll dry your eyes
Don't you feel no shame
'Cause I love your weaknessYou can cry, baby, it's alright
When you hurt, you don't have to hide

Just let down your guard
'Cause I love your weaknessJust let them fall, baby
Let me drive them away
Just let them fall, baby
No shame with me 'cause baby, I knowYou can cry, baby, it's alright
When you hurt, you don't have to hide
Just let down your guard
'Cause I love your weakness
Baby, your weakness, I love your weakness
