

I Know a Girl

MaRynn Taylor

If you got a floorboard
That needs two feet
A voice thatâ€™s callinâ€™ shotgun
A hand right there to reach
Across the center console
And hold onto your knee
Well, I know a girl
If you got a stretch of beach
Somewhere in carolina
That needs pink painted toes
On a towel Iâ€™ll lay beside ya
While the whole world
And the sunset
All goes flying by ya
I know a girl
I know a girl
I know a girl
Who loses sleep about ya
Know a girl
Can hardly breathe around ya
She ain't halfway â€™cross the country
No, she's closer than you think
If you want someone
Who wants to give you everything
I know a girl
If you got a house
At the end of some street
Full of crazy family
Who need someone to meet
So your mom can tell her friends
Ah, you'd love her she's so sweet
I know a girl
I know a girl
I know a girl
Who loses sleep about ya
Know a girl
Can hardly breathe around ya
She ain't halfway â€™cross the country
No, she's closer than you think

If you want someone who wants to Give you everything
I know a girl
If you got a good guy
That still needs a kiss
If you got a heart
That needs someone to miss
I know a girl
Know a girl
If you want someone
I know a girl
If you're looking for forever
Know a girl
Ain't nobody knows you better
If you want someone
I know a girl
Hey, I know a girl
I know a girl
I know a girl
