

My Baby...

Juliana Hatfield

There's an open window where we are
It's a beautiful night full of stars
And isn't it a heavenly breeze
Whispering sweetly through the screen
All the little things are in place
I still like to dream, I still got the same face
But oh, my baby doesn't love me any more, hmm, hmm
Oh, my baby doesn't love me anymore, hmm, hmm
I just know, I just know, I just know
He used to look in my eyes and talk to me
But now we just have sex and watch TV
And when he touches my body
There's something off with the chemistry
I feel him going through the motions
The same ones that still breed hope in me
Oh, my baby doesn't love me anymore, hmm, hmm
Oh, my baby doesn't love me anymore, hmm, hmm
I just know, I just know, I just know, I just know
Did he know me? Did he know, did he ever?
Where does love go when it goes?
It's like a white bird in the snow
He used to wanna make me breakfast
But more and more he's sleeping in
And though he doesn't wanna hurt me
I know he'll soon be leaving
Oh, my baby doesn't love me anymore
Oh, my baby doesn't love me anymore
I just know, I just know, I just know, I just know
Oh, my baby doesn't love me anymore, hmm, hmm
Oh, my baby doesn't love me anymore, hmm, hmm
Oh my baby doesn't love me anymore
