

Strange Eyes

Year of the Rabbit

Did you just say that
We are going out there?
The panic swells
My mouth is dry Slowly get up
Speak out the back door
To make you understand
I don't want to go You're living door to door
With nothing in your soul
Strange eyes
No one you know You want to stop that pain
They'll never let you stay
Strange eyes
No one you know Did you just tell me
We are going out there?
I can't show the stress
I can't show the fear An invitation
We can see the whole world
What can I say
I don't want to go You're living door to door
With nothing in your soul
Strange eyes
No one you know You want to stop that pain
They'll never let you stay
One place
More than a day You're selling door to door
With nothing in your soul
Strange eyes
Black desert rose You want to stop being sick
They'll never let you care
Oh, it's the only way
I'll ever find a reason Do I really have a reason?
Oh, I need you to say
That I really am a reason
Do I really have a reason? If I've given you anything
Say it
If you're feeling anything
Say it
Say it
