

I'm Not Made of Steel

Michael Bolton

Under the endless sky
Beneath a million stars
Within the course of a lifetime
How very young we are? As I stumble on this journey
Along the road to what is real
I'm not made of steel
I'm not made of steel With all the lessons of my learning
And all the strength that I possess
Still there are mountains I wish, I was moving
That take much more than my best There are plans beyond my power
There are dreams beyond my reach Oh, these eyes deceive, the words I speak
They don't tell the story inside
Oh don't believe, the face you see
It's only the face of my pride I'm not made of steel
I'm not made of stone
I can't be anything more than I'm made of
I can't do it all on my own
I'm only a man
Flesh and blood is all I am
You think I can carry the world on my shoulders
That don't mean that I can
I can bend, I can break, I can feel
I'm not made of steel Ohh no Teach you well to wear your armor
What you've learned is just a lie
And there's a price to be paid for denying
With every tear you never cry Oh you don't ever show, don't let them know
The heart you never reveal
Don't ask me why, don't make me hide
The pain you don't think I can feel I'm not made of steel
I'm not made of stone
I can't be anything more than I'm made of
I can't do it all on my own
I'm only a man
Flesh and blood is all I am
You think I can carry the world on my shoulders
That don't mean that I can
I can bend, I can break, I can feel
I'm not made of steel Oh, don't ever believe, the face you see
It's only the face of my, only the face of my pride I'm not made of steel

I'm not made of stone
I can't be anything more than I'm made of
I can't do it all on my own
I'm only a man
Flesh and blood is all I am
You think I can carry the world on my shoulders
That don't mean that I can I'm not made of steel
I'm not made of steel
I'm not made of stone
