Zyklon

let me question your faith, mind, and what you believe why did we leave our gods for one we can't even see? do you wanna tell me why or my story to hear ancient stones were found scriptures from all around tales from a thousand memories dated to different centuries a holy spirit set free released from mind, you and me he's one of true belief a shadow in which you can't breathe his laugh is lightning, thunder his soul the gloomy forest he walks with fire and wind he's the Bloodgod once there were respect for greater power now we are left with one god we're all gone try listen feel the movements around you what makes it happen it's the Bloodgod his laugh is lightning, thunder
his soul the gloomy forest he walks with fire and wind he's only one of many tales from ancient times but ask yourself the question is he the Bloodgod?
