Under the Guillotine

Narrows

Night is over, now it's dawn
Your final day has begun
Hear the steps on the floor
Hear the sounds of the opened doorToo proud to scream, too proud to beg for mercy
You will die by the executioner's handUnder the guillotine
Under the guillotineTears running down your cheeks
As you see the axe of death
You were a prisoner, didn't care about rules
Now it's time to pay for the foolsToo proud to scream, too proud to beg for mercy
You will die by the executioner's handUnder the guillotine
Under the guillotineUnder the guillotine
Under the guillotine
Under the guillotine
Under the guillotine
