

Cathy

Nikki Sudden

Cathy's so crazy 'bout all the latest fashions
She sits in her empty room staring at the walls
She lives in a castle somewhere in the mountains
Oh, I wish that she was in love with me. Watch her as she looks up from the pages of her paper
She tosses her hair and slowly looks away
Pours another measure from her half-empty bottle
Oh, I wish that she was in love with me. Slowly she pours herself another picture
Sinks down into her oldest Saxon chair
Looks up and crosses her heart out with all the debris
Oh, I wish that she was in love with me.
