Maker Of The Wind

Big Daddy Weave

Dark skies overhead and I remember what You said, that You would never leave Rough waters all around but here I am on Solid Ground as You reach down to me
And if You are on my side whom shall I fear
I know the Maker of the wind
The Master of the waves
Forgiver of my sin
And I know the One Who holds my hope

So I won't be afraid when storms come blowing in
I know that Maker of the wind
When trouble finds me, sneaks up behind me
It trips me up and it makes me fall
But when I'm broken then You remind me
That You have overcome it all
You know the number of my days
And what I need to understand
God I can trust in You as long as I can say
