Weatherman

Ibeyi

Weatherman, when the thunder bursts I turn to you
Weatherman, when the thunder bursts I turn to youNature's aware
After winter there'll be spring, he says
Oh the flow
Trust your senses
Abandon your face to the wind, he says
Oh the flowWeatherman, when the thunder bursts I turn to you
Weatherman, when the thunder bursts I turn to youLife is your gift
You can wish everything you fear, he says
Oh the flow
Love in endless
Space is your beginning, your end, he says
Oh the flow
