

Hi, Hello Home

Nils Lofgren & Grin

Hi, hello home
It's good to be alone
Hope it ain't been hurting you
This missing me
I've been away so long
I thought you felt wrong
Play with me tonight
Play some harmony Friends I've tried to feel
They taught me how to steal
Locking me in rooms
Dark with misery
I've missed you till I cried
But now I'm back inside
I just want to hide with you in harmony
Hi, hello home Now I can be your fool
Or I can be your friend
But I need a little love and sympathy
It's hard to recognize
That somewhere in your eyes
My heart used to dance with yours in harmony
Hi, hello home
I wrote you down a poem
Listen very carefully
Here's how it goes
I've met other boys and girls
Some had flowers, some had pearls
I came back alone
What would you have chose Hi, hello home
It's good to be alone
