Suicide Boy

Aeon Spoke

Suicide boy you're gone
You say that waves of joy are breaking beneath your frown
You see the darkest parts of our eyes
But I caught a glimpse of love two broken hearts couldn't hideBut I can't stop the fear in your mind
So I hope that you won't miss me
I hope that you won't miss me
I hope that you find all the love and the light now you're freeSo it's done
You saved us from yourself
Swallowed pills till certain closing your eyes wasn't hell
But you still come back to life
You still come back to life
The ghost of your memory looks like a disease that hurts
And you still hurtBut I can't stop the fear in your mind
So I hope that you won't miss me
I hope that you won't miss me
I hope that you find all the love and the light now you're freeBut I can stop the fearSuicide boy
I can stop the fear
