

Beautiful

August Moon

I see all the struggles, hidden beneath those lovely eyes
I know you were always running with trouble by your side
I will never question thing that happened in your life
All I ever wonder is how you're soBeautifulIf you see imperfections, I must truly be blind
If you see scary monsters, I'll be your shining armored night
If you forget your smile, I'll gladly give you one of mine
If you choose not to listen, I'll remind you why you'reBeautiful
(You're so)
BeautifulSomeday I'll convince you to spread your wings and take flight
One day, I'll remember how to breathe again
You take my breath away
On days I can't be there, just know I think you'reBeautiful
