Alone

Sick of It All

Living in this world that's full of hate
I just try to keep to myself
People gonna fuck with you anyway
They just can't leave you alone
Giving you advice you don't wanna hear
Like thier lives are so greatAll of their lies filled me with anger and hate
There's always someone watching every move you makeLiving in this world that's full of fools
I just try to keep to myself
People always throwing thier opinions at you
Makes it hard to see things clear
Just remember that in the end
The final decision is up to youAll of their lies filled me with anger and hate
They had their greed and their dictations
I'm content to live a life in solitude
All I wanna be is left alone
Disappointment was all you got from me
All I wanna be is left alone
All I wanna be is left alone
All I wanna be is left alone
