

Captain, My Captain

We Say Sunrise

While we wander away from
The normal every day of
This flooded town we called home
I still lay awake
Nostalgic for days when
There werenâ€™t any cracks in the road

Itâ€™s all playing out
I donâ€™t see a reason
Iâ€™ve had my doubts
This was too easy
A long shot
That fell right in my hand
A short cut
To a place with no end
Whatever you want me to see
I just canâ€™t find it

Iâ€™m tied to your side like the tides when theyâ€™re high
But we hide when the currents collide
But despite what it looks like
The water will rise
It has to
Iâ€™ve tried and Iâ€™ve tried

Itâ€™s all playing out
I donâ€™t see a reason
Iâ€™ve had my doubts
This was too easy
A long shot
That fell right in my hand
A short cut
To a place with no end
Whatever you want me to see
I just canâ€™t find it

Itâ€™s a long way down
Itâ€™s a long way down
Itâ€™s a long way down

Itâ€™s a long way

Captain, my captain, go down with your ship
you came and you captured

I think this is it

Itâ€™s a long way down
