The Villians

We took the long ride home
I guess just one last trip
To set us back
And tear us apart
I can see those bloodstained sheets
It plays in my dreams and in my head
Again.
So what went wrong?
Where'd these demons come from tonight?
Come from tonight?
Cause I know that everything's alright
This silent perfect deadly comes from tonight
Cause I know that everything's alright
And I know it always will be.
He left a note that read I'm truly sorry Ma
For what's been done

There's no replacing time
I can see your bloodstained soul
It plays in my sights and my ears
I can hear.
So what went wrong?
Where'd these hÃ¥los come from tonight?
Come from tonight?
Cause I know that everything's alright
This silent perfect deadly comes from tonight
Cause I know that everything's alright now
And I know it always will be.
Can you hear the ghost ring through me?
Can you hear the ghost ring through my heart?
