Ravishing

Bonnie Tyler

When the sun is burning out
And the night is pouring in
Now is the time to run, run boy
Now is the time to hideThere's nobody out on the beach
There's nobody down in the woods
We're gonna do it alone
We're gonna do it outsideAnd I can feel the air, it's sticking to our skin so tight
And I can feel there's something in this air tonight
l really got it bad, tonight I really got it bad
Tonight I really got it bad but it's still so good, so good
That I got it at all and it wasRavishing and I love to see the moonlight
See it shimmer down my dress
It's so ravishing and the wind is like a finger
Tracing patterns on your chest
You're so ravishingThis is the season that we make our move
This is the season we've got something to prove
And this is the season I've got something to lose
Oh, it's now or it's never so now and forever, we'reRavishing, ravishing, oh
Ravishing, ravishing, oh
Ravishing, ravishing, oh
It's all right, we'll be ravishing each other
Till the end of this endless night
It's all right, so right, it's all right, so rightIf an angel broke his wings
Would he come to you for parts
I need a couple of wings boy, boy
I need a reason to soarIf the devil lost his fire could he count on you for sparks
There's something we ought to try now
We ought to try it some more
Than anything I ever wanted was to see the lightAnd there's a chance that we'll be glowing in the dark tonight
I really got it bad, tonight I really got it bad
Tonight I really got it bad
But it still felt good, so good, just to get it at all and it's soRavishing
And I can't believe the way the stars are shooting through your hair
You're so ravishing
And it's just my luck tonight I don't have anything to wear
We're so ravishingThis is the season that we make our move
This is the season we've got something to prove
This is the season I've got something to lose
And all we ever really needed wasRavishing, ravishing, oh

Ravishing, ravishing, oh
Ravishing, ravishing, oh
It's all right, we'll be ravishing each other
Till the end of this endless
Ravishing each other
Till the end of this endless night
It's all right, so right, it's all right, so right
All rightRavishing, ravishing, ravishing, ravishing, ravishing
