

Ex-Tc (Live @ Rock Hard 2007)

Death Angel

Black covers the mass
The mist it's so dense
It's soothing to breatheI reach out my hand
 Into the sights
Yet I grasp nothingAll seems different to me
 What I've seen beforeYearn for the feel
 The warmth that's inside
 A childish grinI joyfully scream
 To deafened ears
It's time to beginAll seems different to me
 What I've seen before
 Can't help but notice
Hidden feelings I had storedYou stare at me
 As if I am strange
My eyes open wideI feel the beauty
 Of all around
Then run through the tidesCome into my place
 There is great pleasure
In what you will findI throw away hate
 That's how you tell
X is on my mindAll seems different to me
 What I've seen before
 Can't help but notice
Hidden feelings I had stored
